

KONAMI DIGITAL ENTERTAINMENT, INC AND TWENTIETH CENTURY FOX CONSUMER PRODUCTS ANNOUNCE KARAOKE REVOLUTION GLEE FOR NINTENDO Wii

First Video Game Title Based On Television Phenomenon To Feature Cast And Music From The Show And Debuts This Fall

EL SEGUNDO, Calif. – June 14, 2010 – Konami Digital Entertainment, Inc. and Twentieth Century Fox Consumer Products today announced a partnership to bring original content from the award-winning hit television series GLEE to Konami's famed Karaoke Revolution franchise. Karaoke Revolution Glee, set to release this fall on Wii™, will feature the chart-topping music and captivating performances from one of the most talked about shows of the year. The game will give fans the chance to enter the role of the ultimate underdog as they perform the songs featured on the show.

"This partnership with Fox is very symbolic to us as we are thrilled to be the first to ever bring GLEE to the living room on a video game console!" said Shinji Hirano, President of Konami Digital Entertainment, Inc. "We plan to elevate the Karaoke Revolution franchise even further by giving fans a chance to pick up the mic and interact with their favorite characters, themes and music from one of the most popular franchises to date."

"This is the kind of game that GLEE fans, or 'Gleeks' as they're affectionately known, have been waiting for. We all know they've been singing along with their favorite characters during the show, now this game will let them rack up points in the process," said Gary Rosenfeld, Senior Vice President, New Media for Fox Consumer Products. "This partnership also reflects our on-going strategy to develop GLEE as a long-term brand at retail."

In Karaoke Revolution Glee, gamers can play alongside their favorite GLEE characters including the infamous Rachel Berry, football star Finn Hudson, and the GLEE club's fearless leader, Will Schuester. Performing some of the most memorable scenes from Season One, players can belt out to 35 chart-topping hits and tunes from the popular TV series. Millions of fans nationwide have made GLEE one of the leading musical franchises of our time. "Gleeks" both young and old will now get their chance to engross themselves in their favorite show like never before. In multiplayer singing games, Gleeks can sing in harmonies or choose to sing as a duet, creating the kind of performance that not even Sue Sylvester can resist!

As an added bonus, unlockable content will be available in a special game play mode where gamers can unlock memorable show moments from Season One. Karaoke Revolution Glee will also utilize Karaoke Revolution's proprietary voice recognition technology, which accurately recognizes and scores vocal pitch and rhythm helping gamers reach those hard hitting notes and perfect their harmonies!

Karaoke Revolution Glee is slated to be released this fall and will be available exclusively for Wii. For more information on the game, please visit: <http://www.konami.com/kr/glee>.
